Brief History of Athens State University

Athens State University is one of the oldest universities in the state of Alabama and possesses a rich history. The Athens State story started in 1821 when a group of citizens from Athens, Alabama had a vision for an institute of higher learning. After Judge John McKinley donated five acres of land and a single building was built, Athens Female Academy was born, and the storied history that would eventually lead to the creation of Athens State University began.

In 1842, ownership of the school was transferred to the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. With this transition, Athens Female Academy became Athens Female Institute. This name remained throughout the conflict of the Civil War and through the birth of the North Alabama Conference of the Methodist Church in 1870, when the Institution came under the jurisdiction of that body. Following this transfer to the newly formed conference, the name was again changed in 1889 to Athens Female College.

In 1929, the Alabama legislature approved a name change to Athens College. Following changes in social mores and community needs, Athens Female College was transformed into a co-educational institution of higher learning. More than 40 years later, the College sought and was granted affiliation with the State of Alabama as a public institution of higher learning.

In June 1975, the Alabama State Board of Education accepted Athens College into the state educational system and appropriated funds for the College to assist graduates of state junior, community, and technical colleges and institutes. Renamed Athens State University in 1998, the institution transitioned, in October 2012, to a new governance structure under an independent Board of Trustees and is no longer under the oversight of the Alabama State Board of Education.

As the only institution in the state of Alabama offering exclusively upper-division degree programs and services, Athens State University continues to preserve a vital and significant position within the community. With a firm history upon which to build its foundation, the University's colorful past has supplied the institution with the tools necessary to continue serving Alabama far into the future.

Cohort: A group of people with a common characteristic (e.g., all students who entered the institution during the same academic year) established for tracking purposes.

Completers: Graduates, or students earning a degree (unduplicated count).

Completions: The number of degrees awarded, reported by field of study, race/ethnicity, gender, and first or second major.

Course: A collection of lessons or modules that usually culminate with an exam or final project and are typically represented by a unique combination of subject code and course number (e.g., AC 301), except in the case of cross-listed courses which typically have the same course title but different subject codes.

Course Enrollment: A typically duplicated count of students enrolled in classes where students are counted for each class in which they are enrolled.

GLOSSARY

Course Section: A section of a course assigned a unique course reference number (CRN); one or more sections make up a class. (see Class for distinction)

Cross-Listed Course/Class: A course offered for registration under two or more departments (the cross-listed courses typically have the same title, but different subject codes). A cross-listed class is made up of multiple sections with the same content but different subject codes and course reference numbers (and sometimes course numbers). Cross-listed courses are taught by the same instructor typically at the same time and location.

Delivery Mode: The primary method or technology used to deliver instruction and information to students and facilitate communication between faculty and students. Instruction may be offered in-person or as distance learning.

Distance Learning (often abbreviated as DL): Distance Learning is a formal educational process in which the majority of the instruction and interaction occurs when students and instructors are not in the same physical space. Instruction may be synchronous or asynchronous with regular and substantive interaction. Distance Learning may include fully online courses only (e.g., hybrid courses are excluded when reporting distance education to IPEDS), or may additionally include blended (or hybrid) courses (e.g., DL usually includes both fully online and blended when reporting internally – there is a separate online only category).

Enrolled Student: A student currently registered for class(es).

Faculty Credit Hour Production: Total credit hours taught by faculty in a given period.

Fiscal Year: Funding year that runs October 1 through September 30.

Full-Time (FT) Faculty: A full-time employee whose primary duty is instruction (per IPEDS). Full-time employees whose primary duty is not instruction but who hold faculty rank (e.g., librarians) are sometimes included as full-time faculty for internal reporting.

Full-Time (FT) Student: An undergraduate student enrolled in 12 or more semester hours, or a graduate student enrolled in 9 or more semester hours.

Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) Student: Full-time equivalent enrollment calculated by term and by year using the following formulas, respectively:

- Student FTE (by Term) = Total undergraduate semester credit hours divided by 15; total graduate semester credit hours divided by 12. (Alabama Commission on Higher Education definition)

GLOSSARY

- Student FTE (12-month) = Annual undergraduate credit hours divided by 30; annual graduate credit hours divided by 24. (IPEDS definition)

Graduation Rate: The percent of degree-seeking students who complete requirements for a bachelor's or master's degree at Athens State University within six years of the term in which they initially enrolled (eight years is used for undergraduate students when based on IPEDS Outcomes Measures).

- Student Teaching Internship (code TH): Beginning in Fall 2023: A student teaching internship (other internships are assigned to a different category; some directed studies were assigned to this category in Fall 2023 but will be assigned to a different category going forward). Fall 2018 to Summer 2023: Although still referred to as the original description traditional/hybrid, the code was typically used for internships, independent studies, practicums, and work experience. (referred to as Internship/Other in Fact Book tables)

Merit-Based Financial Aid: Aid in the form of scholarships and grants not awarded because of demonstrated financial need (non-need-based).

Need-Based Financial Aid: Aid in the form of scholarships, grants, and/or loans awarded to students because of demonstrated financial need.

Notes:

The methodology used to report applicants has changed from the method used in previous years.

Withdrawn apps and apps with updated terms are now included.

Students collected as new in the Data Warehouse (based on their first term at their current level) were previously used to calculate yield rate; now enrolled admits are based on students who were accepted and enrolled in the selected term.

Applicants with multiple applications for a term were counted only once for each term and level, but applicants may be included in more than one term.

The total number of classes in a given time period is lower than the total number of sections because multiple sections may be cross-listed as one class. Cross-listed classes made up of sections of different instructional methods are credited to the blended instructional method, but the credit hour production is credited to the corresponding instructional method of the section. The Fall terms do not match the academic year they are listed under (they are one year ahead).
